IV. 420 Remix PSA Contest – Group Judging: Riane Fletcher.

Congratulations to all of the art and video entries for their participation, creative art work and prevention messages submitted to this year's contest (24 entries were received). Program staff previewed all of the entries and selected the top ten submissions to move on to the online voting stage. Online voting was open Wed., 4/3 through Mon., 4/8 (6,560 online votes were received).

Riane shared a PPT presentation of the top ten along with the online voting results for each submission. NCPC members were asked to score the top ten in four different categories using a 0 to 40 point range (1=lowest, 10=highest), total points possible=40 points. The top three point getters will be awarded first place ($250), second place ($100) and third place ($50) prizes. Also, the board wanted to recognize an individual educator for his/her ongoing collaboration and support for annual 420 Remix event and approved a $50 award to Ms. Susan Ryan, teacher at Valley Middle School in Carlsbad.
